

If you bought “RESERVIE TRANS-RESVERATROL” you could be entitled to money from a legal settlement.

A Settlement has been proposed in a class action lawsuit with Vitamin Shoppe Industries, Inc. (“Vitamin Shoppe”) involving Vitamin Shoppe’s “Reservie Trans-Resveratrol” dietary supplement product (the “Product”).

What Is the Lawsuit About?

The lawsuit claims that Vitamin Shoppe made misleading or false statements about the lawfulness, composition and ingredients of the Product. The lawsuit does not claim that the Product caused anyone physical injury or harm. Vitamin Shoppe denies any wrongdoing or illegal conduct but has agreed to settle the case to avoid the expense and distraction of litigation. The Settlement does not mean that Vitamin Shoppe did anything wrong and the Court has not decided that Vitamin Shoppe did anything wrong.

Am I a Member of the Class?

You are a member of the Settlement Class if you purchased the Product for personal consumption, and not for resale, in the United States starting on or after January 1, 2011 through June 6, 2016.

What Does the Settlement Provide?

Vitamin Shoppe has agreed to create a settlement fund to pay valid claims, and Vitamin Shoppe has agreed to pay the costs to administer this Settlement, reasonable attorneys’ fees and documented costs, and an incentive award to the named Plaintiff.

How Much Money Can I Get Back?

Claimants must provide information, signed under penalty of perjury, relating to their purchase of the Product. Claimants submitting valid claims will be entitled to reimbursement of $17, or $21, or $25, depending upon the total number of valid claims submitted. The maximum reimbursement to each claimant submitting a valid claim is $25. Any money remaining in the fund after all claims are processed will be donated to a court-approved charitable organization. Claims must be submitted online or by mail and submitted or postmarked, by September 23, 2016.

What Are My Other Options?

If you do not want to be legally bound by the settlement, you must exclude yourself by September 23, 2016. If you stay in the settlement, you may object to it by September 23, 2016. The Court will hold a hearing on November 8, 2016 to consider whether to approve the settlement and determine the amount of attorneys’ fees and the named Plaintiff’s incentive award.
